RE: Bankruptcy Case No. 08-1789 (BRL) and my Claim 002415 Bernard Madoff Investment Securities ('BLMIS') for Account No. 1CM941

Dear Judge Lifland,

I am opposed to the determination by the Trustee, Irving Picard, regarding my claim on BLMIS.

I would like to request a hearing on this matter.

1 I do not have access to the BLMIS records upon which the Trustee, Irving Picard, based his determination to deny my claim.

I was not shown the BLMIS records upon which the Trustee, Irving Picard, based his analysis and yet he purports his analysis assumption are based on these records.

I should be shown all the records used for the determination being made about my account in this or any other proceeding.

2 The Trustee did not indicate the basis for the transferor accounts.

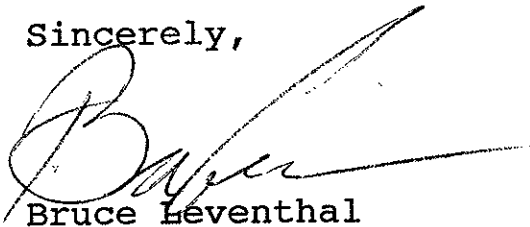

The Trustee did not indicate the basis for the adjustment for my account.

I should be shown all the records used for the determination being made about the transferor accounts in this or any other proceeding.

3 The Trustee's decision is based on and relies on the word and records of Bernard Madoff. He is in jail because his word is no good. A convicted liar and thief with phony, inaccurate, and false records.

It has been demonstrated in court that Bernard Madoff's records and reports are not credible and therefore suspect as evidence. How can the same Madoff records be proven to be deceptive and unreliable and then be used in my case as being accurate and reliable?

Sincerely,

Bruce Leventhal
